Society for Nutrition Education and Behavior

2017 Annual Conference | July 20 - 24 | Washington, DC

Past
Remember our milestones in advancing the discipline of nutrition education.

Present
Enthusiasm for our current accomplishments in nutrition education and behavior changes.

Future
How will SNEB be defined in 50 years? What are our visions, plans and ambitions as a Society and as researchers, educators and advocates?

SNEB invites you to attend the 2017 Annual Conference
Conference Highlights

- Conference details, with speaker list, online at http://www.sneb.org/2017
- Network with more than 600 peers and colleagues from around the world
- More than 40 sessions on nutrition education research, programs and practice looking at topics of families, technology, food service, weight and health across the lifestyle, communications and more
- Over 250 abstract presentations both oral and poster including poster presentation by USDA FNS and USDA NiFA-AFRI grantees
- Pre and post conference workshops and tours
- Fun Run benefitting the SNEB Foundation
- Register online at http://www.sneb.org/2017
- Early bird registration discounts through June 10. Hotel room rate held for SNEB attendees through July 6 or until room block is sold.
- Estimated 30 CEUs from Commission on Dietetic Registration, National Commission for Health Education Credentialing and American Association of Family & Consumer Sciences
- Not a member of SNEB? Take advantage of Join and Save discount.
- A student? There are opportunities to volunteer four hours to earn a full day of conference registration.
- Count down to conference starts April 21. Follow us for 100 days of details to build your best conference experience. Follow at http://www.sneb.org/2017

Conference Hotel:

Grand Hyatt
1000 H Street NW
$199/night (single to triple occupancy) | $249/night (quad)
SNEB Room block valid through July 6, 2017 or until the reserved number of rooms are sold.